Lunch by Ms. Audrey E Citagawa

On 1st November 2013 Ms. Audrey E Kitagawa President & Founder International Academy for Transcultural Cooperation and prominent American Journalist & Anchor person of Voice of America hosted the lunch in honor of Mr. Muhammad Ijaz Noori Chairman PCSW&HR and Mr. Mansoor Ahmed Executive Director. Ms. Sharon Hamilton-Getz, Chairperson NGO Committee on Spirituality, Values and Global Concerns- NY at the United Nations and Ms. Monica Willard United Religions Initiative United Nations NGO Representative also participated in the lunch.

On this occasion Mr. Muhammad Ijaz Noori said that to solve the international crises, sustainable development, durable peace and equal social development, interfaith harmony and dialogues are need of hour. Sustainable development is impossible until the eradication of religious conflict. It is also need of hour that religious conflict should be halted and respect of all religions should also be ensured at all level.

Mr. Muhammad Ijaz Noori, Mr. Mansoor Ahmed, Ms. Sharon Hamilton-Getz, Ms. Monica Willard and Ms. Kitagawa during the Lunch hosted by Ms. Kitagawa

Mr. Muhammad Ijaz Noori also said that Islam is the religion of tolerance, peace, justice, equality and safeguard of the human rights and there is no room for the extremism, terrorism and blood shedding on the name of religion and he assured that the Muslim population of Pakistan will not fail to protect the fundamental rights of non-Muslim Pakistani to obeying Islamic teachings and Pakistani constitution. Mr. Noori said that certainly extremism and terrorism have no room in any good religion as well as in Islam, terrorists have no religion they are just terrorists. It is a universal truth that such kind of war between the people those believe on peace, justice, equality, human dignity and people those believe on the war between civilizations and blood shedding is continue from a long time in history, but it is also true that the humanity believe on peace and justice is always prevail in these periodically wars and the terrorists were always crushed. Mr. Muhammad Ijaz Noori also said that increase of educational budget and changes in education system on priority basis can bring positive changes in developing countries including Pakistan, because lack of quality and inexpensive education is the one of the reason of terrorism & extremism mindset, confrontation and other challenges in Pakistan. Promotion of religious, moderate and national heritage education can be helpful to eradicate and combat against terrorism & extremism and can meet the present challenges in Pakistan. Women's education and their economic empowerment are essential for the sustainable development of any country. Therefore, it is need of hour that in Pakistan and others developing countries that all women should provide quality education.
